Q9 - What did you like MOST about the class?

Faculty:	Xiaolin Shi
Response Rate:	75.00% (3 of 4)

1	The lecture format.
2	I really enjoyed all the topics in this class.
3	I liked how my professor explained each topic very well. I was very nervous to take this class at Bentley because everyone says it is very hard but I feel like Professor Shi made it very easy to learn and found ways for us to understand. She went over everything we needed to know and showed how much she cared that students understood the material. I also really enjoyed taking this class as a day bomb as I am not a student who is usually able to sit through two periods of classes.

Q10 - What did you like LEAST?

Faculty:	Xiaolin Shi
Response Rate:	75.00% (3 of 4)

1	There was nothing I can really say I liked least. I think the course covered an overview of microeconomics. I don't know if I would be able to become an economics major after this but I did find this class very interesting.
2	One midterm.
3	Nothing. I enjoyed everything in the class.

Q11 - What specific incidents/actions most affected your opinion of the class?

Faculty:	Xiaolin Shi

Response Rate:	75.00% (3 of 4)

1	Students around campus always said to not take micro and macro at Bentley which made me feel like this class was going to be impossible, which it didn't end up being.
2	Class discussions.
3	All the real life examples the professor gave in class.

Q12 - How could this class be improved?

Faculty:	Xiaolin Shi
Response Rate:	75.00% (3 of 4)

1	Nothing. Really liked the class.
2	More class assignments.
3	Honestly thought the class was taught and structure very well because it was so much better than I intended.
